PERIPATETIC PIANO TUTOR (SELF-EMPLOYED)

Required as soon as possible
Approximately one day per week

This is an exciting opportunity to join a successful and oversubscribed school. At George Stephenson High School, our values of Ambition, Respect and Community underpin everything we do, and we are committed to providing students with opportunities to develop their talents both inside and outside the classroom.

We are seeking an enthusiastic and experienced Piano Tutor to join our Music Department and support our instrumental tuition programme. The successful candidate will provide one-to-one piano lessons to students across Key Stages 3, 4 and 5, preparing pupils for graded examinations, performances and, where appropriate, GCSE and A Level assessments.
The ideal candidate will have experience of piano tuition, strong performance skills and a passion for inspiring young musicians. Excellent communication, organisation and reliability are essential.

Working Arrangement:
This position is offered on a self-employed basis. The successful tutor will be responsible for managing their own invoicing and collecting lesson fees directly from parents/carers.

The school will support the successful candidate through:

- Timetabling lessons within the school day.
- Providing suitable teaching accommodation and facilities.
- Supporting communication between the tutor and parents/carers.
- Promoting piano tuition to students and families.

If you are passionate about music education and committed to helping young people achieve their potential, we would be delighted to hear from you.
